THESE ARE YOUR GODS

INTRODUCTION: Exo. 32:1-6

1. Among the favorite targets for Bible critics are some of the laws found in the O.C. (cf. Dt. 22:9-11; Exo. 30:37-38).
2. Paul expresses a similar principle for in the Gospel era: Eph. 4:4-6.
3. “Synthetic”, something resulting from synthesis (blending), rather than occurring naturally, i.e., plastics, medications, there is even a “synthetic approach” to Bible study wherein we combine all that the Bible says about something then draw a conclusion.
4. However, when men blend God’s pure will with the ideas of man, we create a hybrid that God never intended.
 - A. Man cannot compete with God’s word (Rom. 11:33-36).
 - B. “If modern man denied God, then post-modern man has dismissed God”. treating Him as trivial and common.

DISCUSSION:

I. AARON AND THE GOLDEN CALF (Exo. 32:1-6).

- A. Aaron Pressured by the People (1).
- B. Aaron Purposed with the People (2-3).
- C. Aaron Produced an Idle for the People (4).
- D. Aaron Perverted Worship for the People (5-6).

II. KING JOTHAM AND THE HIGH PLACES (2 Ki. 15:34-35).

- A. Jotham Reined over Judah (750-732 BC).
- B. Jotham Reigned According to His Father- Uzziah (34): He did right in God’s sight .
- C. Jotham Removed Not the High Places (35).

III. KING AHAZ AND IDOLATRY.

- A. His Foolish Apostasy (2 Ki. 16:3-4; cf. 2 Chr. 28).
- B. His Familiar Apathy (2 Chr. 28:19)
- C. His Full Acceptance (2 Ki. 16:7-15).

IV. DO WE MANUFACTURE GODS?

- A. We do when we modify God’s pattern RE: church, for worship, for marriage, etc.
- B. Sometimes, we become our gods.

CONCLUSION:

1. That golden calf of Aaron’s did not rescue the Israelites from Egypt! Why would they treat it as though it had (Exo. 32:4)?
2. No earthly relationship, no job, no ball game, provided you with shed blood for the redemption of your soul...why give the glory that belongs to Christ to something that has done nothing for your soul?

“I KNELT DOWN A SINNER, AND ROSE UP A CHRISTIAN”.

From a snippet of a television show, I heard a character give an interview. From what I gathered, he had been convicted and imprisoned for a time and had recently been paroled. In the course of the interview he told of his conversion while in prison and stated that while in his cell he knelt down one night and prayed to God; “I knelt down a sinner and rose up a Christian”. The implication is that he was saved by merely saying a prayer.

Such is a commonly held belief among, not only people today, but for hundreds of years. Such a belief as this betrays the fact that they have not studied the Bible regarding God’s plan for redeeming man. No place in the Scriptures this side of the cross can we find so much as a hint that anyone was ever saved based solely by uttering a prayer to God; it’s just not in there.

The attempt at salvation hinted at in the tv show follows what we here so often; somebody accepted Jesus as their personal Savior and if the command of baptism is even mentioned, the implication is that it is an optional thing or is something done after somebody is saved. The Bible says plainly that baptism is a necessary step in being saved (Mark 16:16).

BELIEF + BAPTISM = SALVATION

$$\mathbf{2+2=4}$$

No one can be saved today without baptism; it’s as foreign to the Scriptures as being saved without faith. Look at the words of Jesus carefully: “He that believeth AND is baptized shall be saved; he that believeth not shall be damned” (Mark 16:16 emp. added). The coordinating conjunction “and” gives equal value to “believeth” and “baptized”. Both are required; neither can be excluded by man. Salvation does not occur without both— JK
