THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

It is recognized among most Bible students that Jesus said, “but him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven” (Luke 12:10). As is done so often, a consideration of the full context is not considered, and so, many deem this business of the unpardonable sin as some great mystery—it is not.

In a general sense, “blasphemy” refers to injurious, contemptuous speech, but it also carries with it the idea that “anyone, with the evidence of the Lord’s power before his eyes, should declare it to be Satanic, exhibited a condition of heart beyond divine illumination and therefore hopeless” (W. E. Vine). One in such a depraved condition does not regard the Holy Scriptures as having any real authority. Vine goes on to say that “[d]ivine forgiveness would be inconsistent with the moral nature of God”.

The person described in Luke 12:10 is very much akin to the person described in the preceding verse: “But he who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God”. The eternal state of both is unforgiveness and denial before God. “There is sin leading to death” (1 John 5:16), and blasphemy of the Holy Spirit seems to be it (Luke 12:10; cf. Matt. 12:32; Mark 3:29).

So how do we know if we have blasphemed the Holy Spirit? John wrote, “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). Those who place their trust (faith) in Christ Jesus know His promise and will access His grace and His offer of forgiveness. This comes initially through faith, repentance, confession, and baptism. Once one becomes a Christian then commits sin, they need only to confess their sin and ask for forgiveness. Those who are apathetic about, or have contempt for Christ will not seek such, and therefore are blasphemous against the word of Christ; the word given to us by the Holy Spirit (cf. 2 Peter 1:21). In the margin of your Bible (or on a blank page), make this notation:

- The Lord will forgive every sin that a Christian confesses (1 John 1:8-9).
- There is a sin which the Lord will not forgive (1 John 5:16; Luke 12:10).
- Therefore, the unpardonable sin is any sin that a Christian will not confess.

From 1 John 5:16, we learn there is sin not unto death and “sin leading to death”. Whichever this turns out to be for us is well within our control.

If you are not a Christian today, will you repent and obey the Gospel? Perhaps at one time you were rebelling against God and were ranked among the sinners, but as a Christian “you were washed . . . you were sanctified . . . you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God” (1 Cor. 6:11). —JK.
