BIBLICAL HOPE

(Rom. 8:22-25)

INTRODUCTION:

1. Do not underestimate the importance of “hope” (Rom. 8:24)!
2. Hope defined: Expectation of what is sure (certain).
3. Hope is not a “wish”, not “fantasy”, not “pie in the sky”, not a “pipe dream”!

I. FALSE HOPE.

A. In This Life.

1. Riches (1 Tim. 6:17; Mt. 6:19).
2. Man (Jer. 17:5; Psa. 118:8-9).

B. For The Next Life.

1. Some hope /wish that all will go to Heaven (Mt. 7:13-14).
2. Some hope /wish that no punishment in afterlife (Mk. 9:47-49).
3. Some hope /wish that they will have 2nd chance after death (Heb. 9:27).

II. TRUE HOPE.

A. In Whom Should We Place Our Hope?

1. Christ Jesus (1 Tim. 1:1).
2. The God of Hope (Rom. 15:13).

B. For What Should We Hope?

1. Bodily resurrection (Acts 23:6).
2. A glorified body (Phlp. 3:21).
3. Eternity in Heaven (Col. 1:5).
4. Confidence in our hope (Tit. 1:1-2; 1 Jn. 5:13).

C. Where Do We Find Hope?

1. Scripture (Rom. 15:4).
2. Hope found in Scripture is the only true hope (Eph. 4:4).
3. Can only access true hope in this life (1 Cor. 15:19-23).

D. What Is Our Responsibility Regarding Hope?

1. “Hope” allowed for the quick spread of Christianity in 1st Cent.
2. Multitudes are still looking for that great hope (1 Pet. 3:15).
3. Rejoice in Hope (Rom. 5:2).
4. Defend the hope we have boldly (2 Cor. 3:12).
5. Live pure lives (1 Jn. 3:3).
6. Hold on to our hope (Heb. 3:6).

CONCLUSION:

1. Biblical hope is not a mere wish! Christianity is not a “wishing-well” religion.
2. It is based upon faith produced by sufficient evidence (cf. Heb. 11:1) and therefore results in genuine hope of an eternal reward for the righteous.

A JOYFUL HEART

Brent Pollard

Physician and sociologist Nickolas Christakis tracked 5,000 people over 20 years and discovered what most of us likely suspected, that surrounding ourselves with cheery people makes us happier. Happiness is contagious.<sup>1</sup> And though this should cause us to carefully choose our associates (1 Corinthians 15.33), it should likewise motivate us to be that one spreading the joy.

Solomon wrote, “A joyful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit dries up the bones” (Proverbs 17.22 NASB1995). I have often received this medicine, including my most recent visit to interventional radiology to have a surgical drain placed in an abscess. One of the nurses in the radiology department is named Andre, and I have had the pleasure of receiving his care on multiple occasions.

Last November, when hospitalized for the same purpose of draining abscesses, Andre was the one who came to fetch me and carry me to radiology. You could hear Andre singing before he arrived. He helped me into a wheelchair, and we took things routinely until we reached a long, empty corridor. Then, suddenly, Andre started making the noises of a race car, and we went flying through the halls. As we turned corners, Andre would screech as if he had to brake hard to keep us from crashing.

Andre had to fetch my father from the waiting room during my latest visit. Upon arriving at the waiting room, he asked those seated if they’d rather hear him imitate Bing Crosby or Elvis Presley. Their choice must have been Elvis Presley because he played Elvis on his smartphone and danced as he brought dad to my bedside. Then, he pointed at my hot-blooded sideburns, which he mistook for pork chops, and said, “See, Elvis.”

Wzlcomez! To our visitors. We are thankful for your presence. Please fill out one of the blue cards and place it in one the collection plates or leave it on the seat. Allow us to answer any questions you may have.
