“...the churches of Christ salute you” (Romans 16:16)

This mornings Bible Study and Worship will be presented by Zachary Hammond. He is here with his wife Cortney and is being considered for the pulpit here. They currently live in Hannibal, Ohio where he works as a diesel mechanic. Zachary attended the West Virginia School of Preaching 10 years ago and since that time has been engaged in occasional pulpit and interim preaching. We Welcome you!

Welcome Zachary & Cortney!

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek-“

Romans 1:16

Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:1,2

CHOICES

A young man applied for a job on a farm. The farmer had one question for him. "Are you willing to work hard?" The young man assured the farmer that he could count on him to do an honest day's work, so the farmer hired him.

The first morning he was put to work chopping wood. The farmer told him what he wanted done and then went off to do his own chores. He returned at noon to check on his new employee, and to his surprise, found the wood all chopped and neatly stacked. What should have been an all day job had been done in four hours.

That afternoon the young man was put to work painting the barn. That, too, went smoothly and much faster than the farmer had expected. The job was completed by the weekend.

The following Monday morning the young man was put to work sorting potatoes. Some were for market, some for the farmers table, and some were for planting. After showing the new hand what was expected, the farmer again went off to do his own work. To his surprise, when he returned later that morning, he discovered that the young man had made no progress. "What happened?" he demanded. "You were such a good worker last week!" Embarrassed, the young man replied, "I told you I was a good worker, but I didn't say I could make decisions."

When it comes to faith, it seems the young man has lots of company. At Mount Carmel Elijah chided Israel: "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal, then follow him. But the people answered him not a word" (1 Kings 18:21)

The most important choice we make is the one regarding Jesus. Are we with Him or against Him? There is no neutral ground. We are either on His side or we side with the devil (Matthew 12:30). We have made a choice. Have we made the right one? Remember, time is running out! --Roger
