CERTAIN DOOM

What does the future hold? The answer is not as complex as one might think. If we believe the Bible, and I do, there are only two possibilities. Ultimately, we will either be lost or saved. What lies before us is heaven or hell. Some would therefore argue that the future is bright, not bleak. The general assumption is that most people will be saved. However, the Bible does not paint such a rosy picture.

Notice the following: If we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries. Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace? For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. And again "The Lord will judge His people." It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God (Hebrews 10:26-31, NKJV).

The Bible pronounces certain doom on those who do not love the Lord (1 Corinthians 16:22), who do not believe the truth (2 Thessalonians 2:10-12), who preach an adulterated gospel (Galatians 1:6-10), who will not obey the gospel (2 Thessalonians 1:7-10), and who reject Jesus Christ (John 12:48; Acts 4:12).

At least three fourths of the worlds population automatically stand in rebellion to these commands. Of the remaining twenty-five percent, a majority do not begin to meet all the demands set forth in the New Testament regarding discipleship. Many of those who profess to follow Jesus believe Him to be a way to God, but not the only way. However, the Bible proclaims Him to be the only way to life (John 14:6; Acts 4:12; Ephesians 4:1-6).

Certain doom awaits those who turn their backs on Jesus. What does the future hold for us? The answer to that question is found in our response to Jesus. Do you believe (John 8:24)? Have you been baptized (Mark 16:16)? Are you walking in His steps (1 Peter 2:21)?
