A MISTAKEN VIEW OF JESUS

A well-known preacher was asked why he never addressed any of the issues of the day. There was nothing in his preaching which dealt specifically with sin. He filled his messages with love and steered clear of such topics as divorce, alcohol abuse, abortion, homosexuality, greed and gossip. He defended his silence by saying, “I just want to be like Jesus. I don’t want to be negative. I want to be remembered for what I’m for and not what I’m against.” From his preaching, however, it would appear that he wasn’t against anything! Of course, his philosophy has popular appeal because we live in an age of relative truth and boundless tolerance.

I don’t deny for a moment that Jesus “went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil” (Acts 10:38). His compassion knew no bounds. To the adulterous woman he said, “Neither do I condemn thee” (John 8:11). What many do not know is that in that same verse he also commanded her to, “go, and sin no more.” I don’t want to minimize the love, mercy, and forgiveness of our Savior. In fact, we are called to imitate his example (1 Peter 2:21).

But, those who portray Jesus as one who never criticized hypocrisy, condemned sin, or demanded repentance, have drawn a one-sided and inaccurate picture of Jesus. One will not find a more pointed and direct criticism of the hypocrisy of the Pharisees than that found in Matthew 23. Jesus did not mince words. The Pharisees were hypocrites, and God would judge them accordingly. Nor will we encounter one who speaks more plainly about sin, or more authoritatively regarding repentance (Matthew 11:20-24).

Jesus bucked the establishment. He condemned the hypocrite. He called the sinner to repentance! What did they do to him as a result. They crucified him. Who stood with him at his execution. No one! Jesus ruffled feather! Jesus confronted sin! Jesus hated sin just as much as he loved sinners. People knew where he stood. He not only told them what he was for, but also what he was against! Folks who stand for nothing end of falling for anything. Jesus wasn’t that kind of man, neither are his disciples.

As always, if we can help, please let us know.

--Roger
