“...the churches of Christ salute you” (Romans 16:16)

No other name!

By Colton Ferrell

In Acts 4:12 it says, “Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” The Apostles were brought in and questioned about the man who they had healed. They boldly proclaimed Jesus Christ before the Sanhedrin, declaring that he is the chief cornerstone. These men were not afraid and would proclaim Christ. When we see this text, we see that there is no other name under heaven in which we can find salvation.

Why am I saying this to all of you? Well, we have brothers and sisters who hold man as high as God. Whether it be a politician, athlete, or actor, we hold these people too high. Many have made them into gods and worship them. They would like to make people think that they can save our country and bring peace. This is blaspheming and should not be our outlook. God is and will always be in control.

In Romans 13:1-3, it says “Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. Therefore, whoever resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgement on themselves. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same.

As Christians, we must not resist the governing authorities. One must fully rely on God because he has put these people in charge. We will never fully understand why, but God knows what he is doing. Now, is there a time when we can
