The Importance of a Father.

By Colton Ferrell

In Ephesians 4:6, it says “And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.” The father is important to have in the household. When the father is absent, we see children that are not stable and misbehave outside in the world. Especially, when it comes to remaining faithful to the faith. The father figure is one who leads his entire family to Christ and teaches how to be a role model.

When a father provokes his child to anger, the child will act in a certain way that is not correct. Believe it or not, children will watch how their parents act in certain situations. It is important that Fathers be wise in how they direct their children. We must not direct them towards anger which leads to ungodliness behavior. There are many, look up to their fathers and want to be like them.

Fathers are to be the best examples they can be, but also let his children know that he is not perfect. We only have one father who is perfect and that is God the father. In Matthew 5:48, it says “Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your father in heaven is perfect.” He as the father has
