WELCOME!

“...the churches of Christ salute you” (Romans 16:16)

I grew up in it.

By Colton Ferrell

I grew up in the world and focused my attention on things of the world. My life was all about sports, videogames, and education. Like all other kids, I wanted to be a professional baseball player, but it would not happen. God has other plans which are far better than what I wanted to do. I would become a preacher!

Now, of course, I would become a Christian, then I would be a preacher. My grandparents instilled in me the importance of following God. They lead me to Christ, and I never looked back. I wanted to dedicate my life to Christ. Matthew 28:18-20 says, to make disciples, baptizing them in the name of the father, the son, and the Holy spirit. It is worth giving your life to Christ.
