“...the churches of Christ salute you” (Romans 16:16)

Who to put the blame on?

By Colton Ferrell

People love to blame others for their misfortunes, but sometimes it should be put on you. I remember there were times when I didn't do homework and tried to blame someone or something. Guess what? It never worked and will continue to never work. People will always blame someone for the bad things that happened.

We cannot blame our sin on someone else because we are the problem. In Romans 2:1, Paul tells them that there is no excuse. Those who pass judgement on someone for doing wrong, but they do the same things. We must realize that we have no excuse for when our spiritual life is a mess.

When we give into sin, it is because we desire it and want to do things our way. Do not blame God or anyone else when sin bites back. Sin will always bite back and leave us in a messy state. The only one to blame is yourself. Give your life fully to Christ and be obedient to him. You will see that it is way better.
