The Greatest Gift

I remember the best Christmas gift that I ever received. I am a huge Star Wars fan, and my parents bought me a lightsaber when the prequel came out. It was the double-bladed lightsaber, and it lit up, making swooshing sound as you swung it. I was so happy, I would go outside, pretending to be a jedi playing for hours. One day when I was older, I was going through my closet and found it. By this time, it did not work, and I was not interested in it any longer. It was the best gift I received, but not the greatest gift.

My grandparents gave me the greatest gift of all time, can you guess what it is? Well, it was sharing the gospel with me and eventually I gave my life to Christ. That gift is still being used today and never goes out of style, nor do I grow out of it. My grandparents are dead and gone, but that still is the greatest gift that I have ever received.

In Proverbs 22:6 it says, “Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old, he will not depart from it. (ESV). Now, this is not a solid promise because there have many who have departed from the faith, but there are those who remain. They gave me this gift of salvation and now I am a Gospel preacher. I still look back on those times I spent with my grandparents studying God’s word and it is the greatest gift I have ever received.
