The Builder

An old man, going down a lone highway, came at the evening, cold and gray, to a chasm, vast and deep and wide, through which was flowing a sullen tide. The old man crossed in the twilight dim-That sullen stream held no fears for him; but he turned, when he reached the other side, and built a bridge to span the tide.

“Old man,” said a fellow pilgrim near, “You’re wasting your strength in building here. Your journey will end with the ending day; You never again will pass this way. You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide; why build you this bridge at eventide?”

The builder lifted his old gray head, “Good friend in the path I have come,” he said, “There followeth after me today, A youth whose feet must pass this way. This chasm that has been as naught to me to a fair-haired youth may a pitfall be. He, too, must cross in the twilight dim; Good friend, I’m building this bridge for him.”

-William Droomogoole

We should consider carefully our spiritual and priority decisions for they often affect generations yet unborn.

But from everlasting to everlasting, the Lord’s love is with those who fear him and his righteousness with their children’s children. Psalm 103:17

YOU ARE VALUABLE!

Any community has more work to be done for Christ than a thousand hard-working Christians could do in ten lifetimes. There are people to be invited, classes to be taught, sick people to be tended, old people to be seen after, Bible questions to be answered, facilities to be cleaned and maintained, classrooms and teacher's resource areas to be organized, needy people to be sought out and helped, prayers to be prayed, cards to be sent, visitors to be invited back, chapters to be read, verses to be memorized, widows to be loved, children to be influenced, weak members to be encouraged, erring members to be restored, missionaries to be supported, written to, and prayed for and... This list could take up the rest of this page.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ... Corinthians 12: 12-27

Every member has valuable talent. To be harnessed to help move the gospel plow farther down the row of God's harvest.

Allen Webster
