God's Timing is perfect!

So many will say, "when will God answer my prayer or why can't I have it now?" We do lack patience and trust, but thankfully God reminds us to be patient. He chose the right time to send his son to come and die for all our sins. He has been very consistent with his timing.

Even had a time that Christ would die for our sins and how it would happen. We need to be thankful that we serve a perfect God and who is in control. In Galatians 4:4-5, when the fullness of time came, he sent his only son to redeem mankind.

This is such wonderful news, because if we were in control of all of this, we would not know what to do. My life would be a mess. Time is such a fragile thing, but God knows when the perfect time comes. We must put our full trust and faith in him, because he know more than we do.
