Does God want us to be happy?

We live in a world where it is all about what we want. Me, myself, and I is the way people live. So, if we are not happy who do we blame? Well, we don't blame ourselves, so we blame God. Not once does scripture tell us that God wants us to be happy. So, what does it say?

God calls us to keep his commandments. In John 14:15, Christ tells the people if you love me, you will keep my commandments. He wants us to obey him and live a life that he calls us to live. When we obey Christ, everything will fall into place.

God calls us to trust in him fully. God knows what he is doing and knows what is best for us. We find it hard to trust God, but we like to trust in other people or ourselves. I would rather trust in God because he knew what needed to be done about sin.

Finally, God never promised that it would be sunshine and rainbows. In John 15:18-20, Christ tells his followers what it will be like to follow him. He was persecuted and then killed by his own people. This will happen to those who are his. So, we must look to him and understand that he is always nearby. We must look to our future and keep focused on Christ.
