Is perfection Obtainable?

The short answer is no, but we can strive towards perfection. There are people who stress when they see Matthew 5:48. Here we are called to be perfect like our heavenly Father, but can we?

What Christ is saying here is that we are to grow in our spiritual walk. There is evidence of this in scripture: James 1:4, Hebrews 5:14, and Colossians 1:28. When we come to Christ, we must mature spiritually.

The result of one who has not matured is like a wave tossed by the wind. They will fall away and not remain faithful. People will continue living like the world and putting God on the back burner.

We as Christians must grow with Christ daily. This means we are to completely be devoted to his word and living out his word before the world. If you want to mature, then you must devote every day to living for him.
