Trials can be tough!

With a new year, we will most likely face trials, but we can lean on Christ through these tough times. Christ never dismisses trials and how they affect us. We see Christ weeping during his time in the garden. He knows what we are going through.

With that said, we cannot allow these trials to strip us down and consume us. In 1 Peter 1:6-9, Peter is talking to Christians who are going through trials, but he encourages them. We must find joy during these times, and it can be hard. The Joy we are to find is biblical joy.

This Joy helps us look past these trials and focus on Christ. Christ is our living hope and through him we have an inheritance. The inheritance that we will receive is eternal life with him. We must look past these trials and understand that it helps us grow stronger in Christ.
