God's Pattern for worship: Singing

Many in the Denominational world will say, there is no problem with using instruments. Well, let us take a look at what the New Testament has to say. In Colossians 3:16 we see that the church never used instruments. Singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. In Ephesians 5:19 the church in Ephesus never used instruments. Addressing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. In Acts 2 there is no mention of the early church using instruments. So why do so many insist we use instruments? Where do they find the authority to do this?

They like to go to the Old Testament to justify them using instruments. Well, there is a problem with using a law that we are no longer under. It has been made obsolete (Hebrews 8:13 NKJV). We now live under the New Law which is far better. If we are going to use the Old Law to justify our practices today, then we better be keeping the whole Old Law. That means keeping all the laws given by God. These can be found in Leviticus. Good luck!

David did not just choose the instruments that were to be used, God instructed him on what instruments were used (2 Chronicles 29:25; 30:12). People under the Old Law did not worship God their way, but only His way. Look at what happened to Aaron's sons when they offered strange fire to the Lord! We cannot allow ourselves to offer strange fire.

God has always been specific on how He wants to be worshipped. It wasn't just in the Old Testament, but also in the New Testament. We see the pattern there but many continue to worship in vain. John 4:24 says, God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth. We must continue to worship God in the way He wants to be worshipped.
